

Prof. BHARAT RAMASWAMY

Prof. Bharat Ramaswami is Professor of Economics at the Indian Statistical Institute, Delhi. He has held visiting appointments at universities in Canada, Japan, Sweden and the United States.

Before earning a PhD from the University of Minnesota, Professor Ramaswami obtained Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Economics from the University of Delhi. He was awarded the Mahalanobis Memorial Medal by the Indian Econometric Society in 2004 for his contributions to quantitative economics.

His research can be accessed at <http://www.isid.ac.in/~bharat/dresearch.html>